List of Tables

2.1 Location of managers in the capitalist class structure 16
4.1 List of respondents 48
5.1 Family background by qualification and occupation 52
5.2 Respondents’ educational background and fathers’ occupation 53
5.3 Respondents’ educational background and mothers’ occupation 53
6.1 Labour market segmentation under apartheid 63
6.2 The new architecture of labour market institutions in South Africa 65
6.3 The scope of broad-based black economic empowerment 66
6.4 Changes at top management level from 2000 to 2004 70
6.5 Race and gender profile of registered engineers, technologists and technicians, June 2004 72
6.6 Technikon and university engineering graduates per million of population, by race, 2000 72
7.1 Classification of the sample by managerial category 79
8.1 List of respondents by area of residence 103

List of Figures

2.1 The history of the middle class in South Africa 19