

PARTICIPANT NOTICE OF DATA SHARING FOR STUDY TITLED 'EVALUATION OF POTENTIAL KIDNEY DONORS AND OUTCOMES POST-DONATION AT CHARLOTTE
MAXEKE JOHANNESBURG ACADEMIC HOSPITAL (1983-2015)'

Good day,

The Division of Nephrology at Charlotte Maxeke Johannesburg Academic Hospital conducted a research study in the unit's Living Donor Clinic. The study assessed clinical data of all individuals who presented to this clinic from January 1983 to July 2015. Written permission to access clinical records was obtained from the Human Research Ethics Committee (Medical) of the University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg.

The purpose of the study was to analyze living kidney donation in the South African setting with the hope that the clinical findings of this research may contribute toward the future betterment of care for all potential kidney donors and that this data may expand upon the limited information available in this important field of study.

As a patient belonging to this Living Donor Transplant Community, you have the right to direct how your information is shared for use by research platforms. You may engage with the principal investigator of this study should you have any queries regarding how the data from this study is being applied. You may also withdraw consent to share any information you feel is potentially identifying at any point.

Should you require any further information regarding the study, please feel free to contact the principal investigator, Dr Chandni Dayal via email at chandni.dayal@wits.ac.za or telephonically on 011 489 0467.

Please note that prior to accessing your clinical records, approval was obtained from the Human Research Ethics Committee (Medical) of the University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg. A principal function of this Committee is to safeguard the rights and dignity of all individuals who are a part of research projects and the integrity of the research. If you have any complaints or concerns over the way the study was conducted, please contact the Chairperson of this Committee who is Dr. Clement Penny, on telephone number 011 717 2301, or by e-mail on Clement.Penny@wits.ac.za.
